Q. 81. What is forbidden in the tenth commandment?

A. The tenth commandment forbiddeth all discontentment with our own estate, envying or grieving at the good of our neighbor, and all inordinate motions and affections to anything that is his. 1 Cor. 10:10; Jas. 3:14-16, Gal. 5:26; Col. 3:5

Psalm 127 Laboring and Prospering with the LORD
A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

<sup>1</sup>Unless the LORD builds the house,

They labor in vain who build it;

Unless the LORD guards the city,

The watchman stays awake in vain.

<sup>2</sup>It is vain for you to rise up early,

To sit up late,

To eat the bread of sorrows;

For so He gives His beloved sleep.

<sup>3</sup>Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD,

The fruit of the womb is a reward.

<sup>4</sup>Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,

So are the children of one's youth.

<sup>5</sup>Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them;

They shall not be ashamed,

But shall speak with their enemies in the gate.

MISSIONARY CORNER

Each week we focus on Missionaries and Organizations
we support as a local church.

Ashir & Miriam Mylaram run the Dalit Children's Home in India. Their ministry includes feeding, giving shelter and clothing, and sending the poor children of Dalit to school, teaching life skills, and discipling them in the light of Christ. They are building a home, a worship hall, a computer room, a medical dispensary, and a primary school in order to provide a quality Christian education. They raise milking cows to give nutritious food and are drilling drinking water bore wells with electric pumps for clean drinking water. We are happy to partner with them, as they consider it a privilege given by God to love Him by loving these Dalit children.
