Q. 88. What are the outward and ordinary means whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of redemption?

A. The outward and ordinary means whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of redemption are, His ordinances, especially the Word, sacraments, and prayer; all which are made effectual to the elect for salvation. Matt. 28:18-20; Acts 2:41-42

A Song of Ascents.

¹Behold, bless the LORD,

All you servants of the LORD,

MISSIONARY CORNER

Each week we focus on Missionaries and Organizations we support as a local church.

Family Life Network's motto is "Impacting lives with the message of hope found in Christ Jesus," and they have been doing just that for over sixty years. They proclaim the Gospel through Christian radio, Biblical counseling, concerts, theater performances, even pregnancy resources. They have community calendars that local churches can use to advertise events or individuals can take online Bible courses. They cover a huge area, (including Western and Central New York all the way over to Scranton in Northeastern Pennsylvania) and are always looking for ways to reach more people by building new towers and linking with more radio stations. With everything from pastors' conferences to singles conferences, Bible quizzes (including up to nationwide competition for kids) to local VBS, FLN is a resource for the entire Christian community. Pray for them as they are making plans to build a new headquarters to serve the Lord as they have outgrown their current facility.
