Update from Samuel Benjamin and his daughter Mano

MIRACLE IN MANO'S MINISTRY

We praise God for the purchase of our new vehicle. Our old car was costing us too much in expense and repairs, and it was a very difficult ride for Samuel—given his age and the traveling required. By God's grace, Mano was sanctioned a bank car loan to help us purchase a new vehicle. By God's miracle-working power, Mr. David Gazard provided funds for the initial down payment and Mano's church, Saskatoon Church of Christ, decided to help her pay off the car loan. The love, care, and concern towards Mano and our ministries overwhelms our hearts with gratitude. We are so thankful, grateful, and stand in awe of God's miracle-working power. Thanks to our mission for helping us with all the financial details.

Praise God for His Provision

MIRACLE IN SAMUEL'S MINISTRY

It was a tremendous blessing to have Samuel's Bible School classmate, Mrs. Monica DiFrancesco, visit us for a week in October and minister to and bless our dear folk at Ponnagam. Monica went to Prairie Bible Institute with Sam and Eby in the early 1970s; she babysat Ponn, Mano, and Paul. Monica traced us down online through MissionGO and after 45 years came to visit us, wanting to share in our ministries. We praise God for the counselling, care, and unconditional love that Monica shared with all of us at Ponnagam. Monica was very demonstrative in the time and effort she invested in empowering and encouraging everyone. She truly wanted to share in our ministries and help make a difference in this most hurting world.
