Q. 60. How is the sabbath to be sanctified?

A. The sabbath is to be sanctified by a holy resting all that day, even from such worldly employments and recreations as are lawful on other days; and spending the whole time in the public and private exercises of God's worship, except so much as is to be taken up in the works of necessity and mercy. Ex. 20:10; Neh. 13:15-22; Isa. 58:13-14, Ex. 20:8; Lev. 23:3; Luke 4:16; Acts 20:7, Matt. 12:1-13

MISSIONARY CORNER

Each week we focus on Missionaries and Organizations we support as a local church.

What Jews for Jesus does:

1. Raise awareness of Jesus as the Jewish Messiah

We believe that every Jewish person has the right to make up their own mind about Jesus. Our staff are advocates for Jesus as Messiah and share His message to Jewish people who might not otherwise hear it. We engage with people in conversations about Jesus in public places such as city centers, college campuses, parks, hiking trails on Indian mountainsides, and a range of online platforms. We use a range of creative means to share our message with a wide array of audiences—everyone from ultra-Orthodox Jewish people in Brooklyn to Israeli soldiers in Tel Aviv to Jewish Gentile couples in London.

2. Facilitate Jewish community

We believe that faith in Jesus is a viable and thriving expression of Jewish life. That is why we invite people to come and see what it means to be Jewish and believe in Yeshua. We operate community spaces around the world in cities like Tel Aviv, Sydney, and Los Angeles, hosting events where art, music, films, and good food create opportunities for dialogue and conversations about spiritual things. We open our homes and share Shabbat dinners with people we meet or let others join in for a shared holiday meal.

We teach the Scriptures and disciple new followers of Jesus, equipping new generations of Jewish believers worldwide to serve and live for Jesus. Regardless of where or how we do it, our vision is to invite Jewish people to find a place to belong, a safe place to ask questions about faith, and true shalom in knowing God.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Sunday, September 7, we will have one combined worship service at 10:15 under the pavilion immediately followed by our Annual Church Picnic.

Friday, October 3 we will hold our Annual Chowder and bonfire at 6 PM
