MISSIONARY CORNER

Each week we focus on Missionaries and Organizations we support as a local church.

From Duckens and Francelene in Haiti:

It is always a privilege to serve in the vineyard of God. However, service comes with challenges sometimes. Our home church is in a crisis for a leader. God has led us to go to our native city to serve the church on the weekends. This responsibility brings some challenges. One of them is that we don't have a place to stay and park our car. It is completely impossible to even think of going with students being part of our discipleship program. One good news is that God helped us to buy a piece of land! We are planning to build a ministry house on this land, which will allow us to:

- Have a place to stay with our disciples when we go on the weekends. This will give our disciples an opportunity to see how we practice what we are teaching in class. In addition, they will be able to teach lay leaders in the city on Saturdays.
- Have a place to host our colleagues when they are in the town visiting the churches to talk about what the seminary is doing in the community. This will eliminate the need for them to pay to stay at a hotel or a guest house during their stay.
- Host ministry trainers.
- Host friends visiting the ministry in St-Marc.
- Host other missionaries in need of a temporary place to stay.
