Weekly Global Update - Jewish Voice Ministries International

FEBRUARY 12, 2026

Thank you for standing faithfully with Israel and the Jewish people during a week marked by rising threats, distorted narratives, and deepening global pressure. World leaders are making decisions with enormous consequences; antisemitism is once again surging openly — in North America and around the world — and Jewish communities are feeling the weight of it all.

Your prayers and generosity matter now more than ever. Because of you, Jewish Voice continues to share the love of Yeshua (Jesus) with Jewish families — not only through humanitarian care, but through truth, compassion, and unwavering presence in difficult places.

Please join me in being vigilant this week — praying earnestly for wisdom for leaders, protection for Jewish communities, and courage for believers to stand firm.
