MISSIONARY CORNER

Each week we focus on Missionaries and
Organizations we support as a local church.

The launch of Grace to You came with little fanfare. Just a few months before Apollo 11 landed (in 1969), John MacArthur arrived at a small church on the outskirts of Los Angeles. Spawning a media ministry that would stretch to every corner of the globe was out of the question—the young pastor's priority was simply to teach God's Word. But one man in the congregation immediately saw an opportunity and acted. Realizing some members were too ill to attend services, that church member began recording John's lessons. In the early years, the fledgling ministry captured John's lessons on large reel-to-reel recorders and all the labor was carried out by part-time volunteers.

In 1977, seemingly by accident, a few Grace to You tapes found their way on the air in Baltimore, Maryland, and Grace to You radio was born. Christian radio was blossoming into a powerful, personal conduit for feeding people's hunger for God's Word and we were riding the crest of the wave. For some, our half-hour of teaching was a supplement to their strong local church. For others, it was a lifeline.
