APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell. On the third day He arose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven and sits on the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death.
Philippians 3:10

WESTMINSTER CATECHISM

Q. 19. What is the misery of that estate whereinto man fell?
A. All mankind by their fall lost communion with God, are under His wrath and curse, and so made liable to all miseries in this life, to death itself, and to the pains of hell for ever. THE REFORMATION

On the last Sunday of October each year we remember the Reformation started by Martin Luther on October 31, 1517. It was this matter of knowing how to be saved that we have Martin Luther's quest for a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. He would starve himself, sit in cold rooms shivering, trying everything to find Christ and know that he was saved. Then, as he studied for classes that he was teaching at Wittenburg University he came across the verse in Romans 1:17—The Just shall live by faith. The same verse was found in Galatians and Hebrews, and all three were a quote of Habakkuk 2:20. Luther found his answer, he could be saved from his sins and be accepted by God through justification by faith alone. That means that Christ Jesus accomplished through His suffering and death on the Cross all that is necessary for salvation. This was the Good News that Luther wanted to share with everyone!

HOW DEEP THE FATHER'S LOVE FOR US

How deep the Father's love for us. How vast beyond all measure!
That He should give His only Son, to make a wretch His treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss! The Father turns His face away.
As wounds which mar the Chosen One bring many sons to glory.

Behold the man upon the cross, my sin upon His shoulder.
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice Cry out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that held Him there Until it was accomplished.
His dying breath has brought me life. I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything, no gifts, no power, no wisdom.
But I will boast in Jesus Christ, His death and resurrection.
Why should I gain from His reward? I cannot give an answer.
But this I know with all my heart: His wounds have paid my ransom.
But this I know with all my heart: His wounds have paid my ransom.

I WILL BOAST

Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom
Or the strong man boast in his strength
Let not the rich man boast in his riches
But let the humble come and give thanks
To the One Who made us, the One Who saved us

I will boast in the Lord my God, I will boast in the One Who's worthy
I will boast in the Lord my God, I will boast in the One Who's worthy,
He's Worthy

Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom
Or the strong man boast in his strength
Let not the rich man boast in his riches
But let the humble come and give thanks
To the One Who made us, the One Who saved us

I will boast in the Lord my God, I will boast in the One Who's worthy
I will boast in the Lord my God, I will boast in the One Who's worthy,
He's Worthy
I will make my boast in Christ alone x4
